Admiral Farragut Academy is a leading American Naval School located in St. Petersburg, Florida, and has all the top class facilities you would expect from such an institution; including its own swimming pool, wonderful sports facilities and private Bayfront for sailing classes.

The course is a specifically designed residential course for students between the ages of 14 and 17 years. Every part of the day is designed so that students are learning and speaking English from breakfast to bedtime, thereby developing their confidence, independence and fluency.

- Saturday excursions to include: Disney World, Busch Gardens, Universal Studios, Wet n' Wild
- Private Bayfront and swimming pool on campus for an array of extra special water based fun
- Qualified sailing instructors available for private tuition. 6 hours of tuition per week

- Students stay in double or triple rooms with a guaranteed mix of nationalities ensuring the continued speaking of English
- High staff to student ratio ensures students are well looked after in a safe and secure environment
- Maximum class size of 12 students
